Accession Day, I need hardly say, is one of the great religious festivals in this city; and so, early on Thursday, a large number of women of all classes, dressed in the deepest mourning, appeared at the gates of this church and demanded admittance. They were told that there were no longer religion, or churches, or "Our Ladies," so They were told that there were no longer religion, or churches, or "Our Ladies," so they had better go home, quietly. Then ensued a regular religious row, and one ludy struck a National in the eye. The more serious, however, retired to the corner of the Rue des Victoires, and knelt by the of the Rue des Victoires, and knelt by the side ralls in the street. No sooner was this seen thin a more than usually inflantly National called from the most ten of the dirtiest boys he could flind, and caused them to kneel in front of the great entrance; then he re-entered the sacred edition, and returning in a few seconds told them literally to shut their eyes, open their mouths, and see what "Our Lady" would send, them. A perfect thrill of borror ran through the square, peopled though it was by the worst class in Faria, when they saw the ruffian put into sach, gaping by the worst class in Latis, when they saw the ruffian put into each gaping mouth—the consecrated wafer! His brother officers and mon roared with indecent laughter, and the granting grinned; but the growd was silent, and the kneeling women wept. Not content with this, the "Nationals" then rushed in, got some hundreds of these wafers and throw them.

A Pitiful Condition.-It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yes there are thousands whose habitual condition i one of languor and debility. They romplain no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain out they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robu and energotic fellow-beings In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitud

Now, what does common sense suggest under ese circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterwards into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly rould do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant wer resorted to,) but radically and permanently. How is this desirable object to be accomplished The answer to this question, founded on the un varying experience of a quarter of a century, i easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostelter's Stomach Ditters.
